

Shipping and Delivery Guidelines

1. Shipment Scheduling

Shipments must be scheduled within 24 hours after order confirmation. Weekend and holiday shipments require prior approvals and may incur additional fees. Delays in shipment scheduling must be reported within 12 hours.

2. Carrier Selection Criteria

Preferred carriers include FedEx, UPS, USPS, DHL, and LocalCourier based on region and service type. Performance is reviewed quarterly. Carrier failure rate must not exceed 3 percent. Alternate carriers may be approved for special circumstances.

3. Tracking and Notifications

All shipments must include valid tracking numbers accessible to customers. Notification emails regarding shipment status must be sent within 2 hours of shipment dispatch.

4. Delivery Time Standards

Standard delivery timeframes are within 5 business days for domestic shipments. Expedited options are available for additional cost. Delivery delays beyond 7 business days require automatic escalation and customer notification.

5. Damaged or Lost Shipments

Any damaged or lost shipments must be reported within 24 hours of discovery. Investigation must be completed within 10 business days. Compensation policies apply according to shipment insurance coverage.
